Whistleblower Protection

Purpose:

To provide reporting procedures should an Ione Library District employee become aware of improper government action in accordance with Oregon Revised Statute 659A.200 to 659A.224.

- I. The Ione Library District encourages any employee with knowledge of, or concern of, an illegal or dishonest fraudulent Ione Library District activity to report it to the Ione Library Board Chair Person. The employee may also provide the information to another Ione Library Board Committee person, a state or federal regulatory agency, a law enforcement agency, or an attorney licensed to practice law in Oregon if a confidential communication is made in connection with the alleged violation. Attorneys employed by the Ione Library District may report violations of law to the Attorney General, subject to rules of professional conduct. All such issues will be investigated in a timely manner to determine fault and institute any appropriate corrective measures. Examples of illegal or dishonest activities are violations of federal, state, or local laws; billing for services not performed or for goods not delivered; and other fraudulent financial reporting. For any employee wishing more information, further details can be obtained from the Ione Library Board Chair Person.

- II. The employee must exercise sound judgement to avoid baseless allegations. An employee who intentionally files a false report of wrongdoing may be subject to corrective action up to and including termination.

III. Whistleblower protections are provided to maintain confidentiality and to prevent retaliation. While identity may have to be disclosed to conduct a thorough investigation, to comply with the law, and to provide accused individuals their due course, the privacy of the individual making the report will be protected as much as possible. The Ione Library District will not retaliate against a whistleblower. This includes, but is not limited to, protection from retaliation in the form of an adverse employment action such as termination, compensation decreases, or poor work assignments and threats of physical harm. Any whistleblower who believes he/she is being retaliated against must contact the Ione Library District Chair Person immediately. The right of a whistleblower for protection against retaliation does not include immunity for any personal wrongdoing that is alleged and investigated.

IV. All reports of illegal and dishonest activities will be promptly submitted to the Ione Library District Chair Person who is responsible for investigating and coordinating corrective action.
